This breathtaking French country style home is truly poised for entertainment. Gather at the patio by the fire pit for a glass of wine or meander upstairs to the elegant fairway room to warm up by the fireplace; either way relax as you take in the remarkable views of the 9th green. With family or friends, you will find endless room to enjoy yourself in the chef's kitchen, lower level library, and screen porch. Easily maneuver your home with a dual stair case, accessing the first floor master suite with separate deck entrance, and in a moment's time, the media room with separate bath and balcony. A must-see house.
